Submit via email by the end of the second week of the semester in which the candidate wishes to complete exams.

NAME OF CANDIDATE: ____________________________________________

The written examination will require students to answer questions from:

- Three (3) areas from the reading list (included in handbook), from which seven (7) items will be chosen in each area. If areas in linguistics are chosen: most of the linguistics reading list is composed of reference books; consequently, students must contact their linguistics professors to determine 7 topics in a given area. Students may not choose more than 2 areas in one field (i.e. Literature/Culture or Linguistics/Pedagogy).
- One (1) additional question, on any course or any combination of courses taken.

AREAS:

I. ________________________________________________________________

   Items: 1. ____________________________  5. ____________________________
          2. ____________________________  6. ____________________________
          3. ____________________________  7. ____________________________
          4. ____________________________

II. ________________________________________________________________

   Items: 1. ____________________________  5. ____________________________
          2. ____________________________  6. ____________________________
          3. ____________________________  7. ____________________________
          4. ____________________________

III. ________________________________________________________________

   Items: 1. ____________________________  5. ____________________________
          2. ____________________________  6. ____________________________
          3. ____________________________  7. ____________________________
          4. ____________________________

IV. Courses Taken (To be filled in by Graduate Director):

   ________________________________________________________________