Submit via email to the Graduate Studies Director by the end of the second week of the semester in which the candidate wishes to complete exams.

NAME OF CANDIDATE: ___________________________________________________________

For the MA written examination, candidates must choose three (3) centuries in the French reading list (they are responsible for only one section in the nineteenth or the twentieth century). One week prior to the exam date, candidates are notified by the Director of Graduate Studies of the author whose work will be the subject of the Explication de texte. The written examination lasts four (4) hours.

AREAS FOR WRITTEN EXAM:

I. ________________________________________________________________

II. _______________________________________________________________

III. ______________________________________________________________

AREAS FOR ORAL EXAM:

For the oral examination, candidates are responsible for all the reading list sections from the Middle Ages through the eighteenth century and for one section each (chosen by the student) in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

I. All sections from Middle Ages to 18th Century

II. Section from 19th Century: _____________________________________________

III. Section from 20th Century: _____________________________________________