

Earn your Master's degree in Spanish or French in 1 year!

The Department of World Languages & Cultures in the College of Arts and Sciences at Georgia State University offers a dual degree program in Spanish and French. Students have the opportunity to earn a BA and an MA in five years.

Opportunity

Make connections to careers in the Atlanta business, government, non-profit and cultural communities. Advanced knowledge of Spanish or French opens doors to many opportunities.

Distinction

Develop a mastery of the Spanish or French language and expand your knowledge of Spanish- and French-speaking cultures. Also, master critical thinking and leadership skills employers want.

Innovative

A portfolio model encourages students to complement their studies with projects undertaken through volunteer work and internships in the Atlanta metropolitan area.

Possible

Assistantships are available with full tuition waivers for qualified applicants. Some online course offerings and short-term study abroad programs help you finish your degree.
